Clap Hands, All People, by Jean Berger

Clap hands, all people, shout for joy, to God with voice of singing mirth:
For high Jehovah fearful is, a great King over all the earth.

People to us He doth subdue, and nations under our feet lay;
For us our heritage He chose, His dear Jacob's glory. Selah

God is ascended with a shout: Jehovah with the trumpet's noise.
Sing psalms to God, sing psalms unto our King with singing voice.

For God is King of all the earth; sing ye psalms of instruction:
Over the heathen God will reign, God sits His holy throne upon.

To the people of Abraham's God, Princes of peoples gathered be,
For shields of th'earth to God belong; He is exalted mightily.

Clap Hands All People draws its text from the first book printed in America, The Bay Psalm Book, a psalter printed in 1640 in Cambridge Massachusetts. Berger's music is meant to evoke the style of early American singing.
