When I Can Read My Title Clear, arr. Alice Parker

When I can read my title clear to mansions in the skies,
I'll bid farewell to every fear and wipe my weeping eyes.

Should earth against my soul engage and hellish darts be hurled,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage and face a frowning world.

Let cares like a wild deluge come and storms of sorrow fall,
May I but safely reach my home, my God, my heav'n, my all.

There shall I bathe my weary soul in seas of heav'nly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll across my peaceful breast.
