

The Passion of Jesus Christ

for God's glory and our good

April 17-24, 2011

*Welcome to the Family of Christ
at Camelback Bible Church*

If you are visiting today, we invite you to take in all of the richness of God's goodness in these special services of Holy Week. We also invite you to consider visiting Camelback during our regular weekly services. Each Sunday we gather as a family for worship in this sanctuary. We celebrate God's glory at 9:00 AM with modern music and instruments, and at 10:40 AM with classical hymns, organ and choir. Both services feature the same sermon from God's word. Children's and youth activities are on Wednesdays at 6:45 PM. During the week we also have ministries for all ages and groups of people. See the back cover of this book for information.

We are a loving church family and are eager to meet you, so please introduce yourself to someone. Before leaving today, please pick up our Welcome Brochure, available at the rear of the sanctuary or at the Welcome Center outside on the patio. If you have any questions, you may speak with someone at the Welcome Center, any usher or pastor, or even anyone sitting near you.

We also invite you to complete an Information Card, located in the pew in front of you or in your gift bag. Please place it in the ushers' bag during any offering, or hand it to an usher or someone at the Welcome Center. We want to get to know you and welcome you here.

We're so pleased you visited us today, and hope you will return and join this church family!

T

he one life that changed the course of history can still change the course of one life.

How can one person—born in obscurity and crucified in disgrace—affect the lives of billions around the world? How can one life be so revolutionary as to divide history between B.C. and A.D.? How can one week in antiquity so radically transform your existence in the present? This week we invite you to re-discover that hope-filled week, and the personally transforming truth about Jesus the Christ.

A child born in a cattle's trough would one day ascend to a criminal's cross, and on that harrowing tree resurrect a fallen humanity. Dismantling the twin adversaries so ruinous to our race, sin and death, He would install a new regime of light and life to all who would come to worship His Father, the God of creation.

His birth was a moment for the ages. His death and resurrection would transform the ages. This week, we retell the story; from the intimate Passover fellowship with His closest disciples, to His betrayal, to His trial, crucifixion, and triumphant resurrection.

May the reminder of the Passion of King Jesus deeply stir your heart. May you long for nothing more than to be His follower. May you give Him your heart and life. One thing is sure: once you set foot into His kingdom, you will never want to be anywhere else! It is so precious, so good, so full of heavenly glory. It changes us – the way we pray, the way we love, the way we live!

May we all seek, during this Holy Week and beyond, to be ever more faithful subjects of Jesus Christ the King . . . for God's glory and our good.

Hosanna

*Praise is rising, eyes are turning to You, we turn to You.
Hope is stirring, hearts are yearning for You, we long for You.
'Cause when we see You, we find strength to face the day.
In Your presence all our fears are washed away.*

Hosanna, Hosanna
You are the God who saves us, worthy of all our praises.
Hosanna, Hosanna
Come have Your way among us,
We welcome You here, Lord Jesus.

*Hear the sound of hearts returning to You, we turn to You.
In Your kingdom broken lives are made new, You make us new.
'Cause when we see You, we find strength to face the day.
In Your presence all our fears are washed away.*

Wake my Soul with Joy and Gladness, by John Horman

*Wake my soul with joy and gladness, from a winter dark with gloom.
Fill my heart and voice with singing. Christ is risen from the tomb!*

*Christ is risen, Christ is risen! Death no longer bears its sting!
Life now reigns on high, victorious!
Heaven and earth in glory singing, Christ is risen from the tomb!
Hallelujah, Christ is risen from the tomb.*

Let Your Kingdom Come

*Your glorious cause, O God, engages our hearts.
May Jesus Christ be known wherever we are.
We ask not for ourselves, but for Your renown.
The cross has saved us so we pray Your kingdom come.*

Let Your kingdom come, let Your will be done,
So that everyone might know Your name.
Let Your song be heard everywhere on earth
Till Your sovereign work on earth is done.
Let Your kingdom come.

*Give us Your strength, O God, and courage to speak.
Perform Your wondrous deeds through those who are weak.
Lord, use us as You want, whatever the test,
By grace we'll preach Your gospel
Till our dying breath.*

How Deep the Father's Love for Us, by Stuart Townsend

*How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure.
That He should give His only Son to make a wretch His treasure.*

*How great the pain of searing loss, the Father turns His face away.
As wounds which mar the chosen One bring many sons to glory.*

*Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon His shoulders.
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers.*

*It was my sin that held Him there, until it was accomplished.
His dying breath has brought me life, I know that it is finished.*

Worship Team and congregation join for last verse:

*I will not boast in anything, no gifts, no power, no wisdom.
But I will boast in Jesus Christ, His death and resurrection.*

*Why should I gain from His reward? I cannot give an answer.
But this I know with all my heart, His wounds have paid my ransom.*

*Amazing grace, how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see.*

*'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear, the hour I first believed.*

My chains are gone, I've been set free,
My God, my Savior has ransomed me.
And like a flood, His mercy reigns,
Unending love, amazing grace.

*The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.*

*The earth shall soon dissolve like snow, the sun forbear to shine.
But God who called me here below, will be forever mine. You are forever mine.*

Choir sings Introduction

Congregation stand and join when cued:

*Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before thee, opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.*

*Mortals, join the mighty chorus which the morning stars began;
Father love is reigning o'er us, brother love binds man to man.
Ever singing, march we onward, victors in the midst of strife,
Joyful music leads us sunward in the triumph song of life.*

*What wisdom once devised the plan where all our sin and pride
Was placed upon the perfect Lamb who suffered, bled, and died?
The wisdom of a Sovereign God whose greatness will be shown
When those who crucified Your Son rejoice around Your throne*

And, Oh, the glory of the cross that You would send Your Son for us
I gladly count my life as loss that I might come to know
The glory of, the glory of the cross.

*What righteousness was there revealed that sets the guilty free
That justifies ungodly men and calls the filthy clean?
A righteousness that proved to all Your justice has been met
And holy wrath is satisfied through one atoning death*

Let This Mind Be In You, by Dale Grotenhuis (text from Philippians 2:6-11)

Let this mind be in you which is also in Christ Jesus:
Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God,
But made himself of no reputation, and took upon himself the nature of a servant, in human likeness, and being found in appearance like a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death, even the death on the cross.

Together At the Table of the Lord, by John Purifoy

Together at the table we join our hearts as one,
To share a holy moment just as others long have done.
Remembering our Savior, reflecting on God's love,
With grateful hearts we gather 'round the bread and cup.

The saints who've gone before us once did the very same.
They broke the bread together as they prayed in Jesus' name.
Together at your table Lord, we come to honor You.
And just as You commanded, in remembrance, this we do.

Now gathered at your table, unite our hearts as one
To share this holy moment just as others long have done.
We will remember You, the Body and the Blood.
We share this holy moment now together at the table of our Lord.

Closing Benediction

(Read aloud together)

*As Jesus loved us, so let us love one another.
By this all people will know that we are His disciples, if we have love for one another. Amen.* —John 13:34-35

Go To Dark Gethsemane, by Leland B. Sateren

Go to dark Gethsemane, ye that feel the tempter's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see, watch with Him one bitter hour;
Turn not from His griefs away, learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

View the Lord of life arraigned, Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
O the wormwood and the gall! O the pangs His soul sustained.
"It is finished," hear Him cry, learn of Jesus Christ to die.

Tenebræ Factæ sunt, by Marc Antonio Ingegneri (text from the Gospels)

Tenebræ factæ sunt, dum crucifixissent Jesum Judæi: et circa horam nonam exclamavit Jesus voce magna: "Deus meus, ut quid me dereliquisti?" Exclamans Jesus voce magna, ait: "Pater, in manus tuas commendo spiritum meum." Et inclinato capite, emisit spiritum.	A great darkness fell when they crucified Jesus of Judea: and about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice: "My God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying: "Father, in thy hands I commend my spirit." And he bowed his head, and gave up the spirit.

Congregational Singing (sung as lights are dimming)

*O sacred Head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded with thorns, Thine only crown:
O sacred Head, what glory, what bliss till now was Thine!
Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call Thee mine.*

*What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered was all for sinners' gain;
Mine, mine was the transgression, but Thine the deadly pain.
Lo, here I fall, my Savior! 'Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor, vouchsafe to me Thy grace.*

Christ is Risen

*Let no one caught in sin remain inside the lie of inward shame;
We fix our eyes upon the cross, and run to Him Who showed great love.
And bled for us, freely You've bled for us.*

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling over death by death;
Come awake, come awake, come and rise up from the grave.
Christ is risen from the dead, we are one with Him again,
Come awake, come awake, come and rise up from the grave.

*Beneath the weight of all our sin, You bowed to none but heaven's will;
No scheme of hell, no scoffer's crown, no burden great can hold You down.
In strength You reign, forever let Your church proclaim.*

*O death, where is your sting? O hell, where is your victory?
O church, come stand in the light, Our God is not dead,
He's Alive! He's Alive!*

Before the Throne of God Above

*Before the throne of God above,
I have a strong and perfect plea,
A great High Priest whose name is "Love,"
Who ever lives and pleads for me.
My name is graven on His hands,
My name is written n His heart;
I know that while in heav'n He stands
No tongue can bid me thence depart.*

*When Satan tempts me to despair,
And tells me of the guilt within,
Upward I look and see Him there,
Who made an end to all my sin.
Because the sinless Savior died,
My sinful soul is counted free;
For God, the Just, is satisfied,
To look on Him and pardon me.*

Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
Praise the One, risen Son of God.

*Behold Him there! The risen Lamb,
My perfect, spotless Righteousness,
The great unchangeable I AM,
The King of Glory and of grace!
One in Himself I cannot die,
My soul is purchased by His blood;
My life is hid with Christ on high,
With Christ, my Savior and my God.*

Hear the bells ring! Alleluia! Christ is risen from the dead!
Christ our Lord is risen again. Christ has broken every chain.

Now through all the world it rings that the Lamb is King of kings.
Hear the bells ring! Alleluia! Christ is risen from the dead.

He who gave for us his life, who for us endured the strife,
Takes our sin and guilt away that with angels we may say: Alleluia...

Alleluia! Glory be to God on high,
Sing forth this holy Easter day:
Christ Jesus lives again.

The Marys went their Lord to seek
Before the day began to break.

An angel bade their sorrow flee,
For thus he spoke unto the three,
"Your Lord is gone to Galilee."
