Go down, Moses, go down to Egypt land!

Let me tell you about a story along time ago way down in Egypt land. Seems the Pharaoh had taken control of things, had the people in the palm of his hands. But a certain group of people called the Israelites didn't want to play his game; so the Pharaoh forced the people into slavery, and he caused them grief and shame.

Well, the Lord in the heavens looked down and saw His people and their pain, so he called out a man from Midian and Moses was his name. Well, Moses was attending his flock one day, when a bush began to burn, and the Lord spoke to Moses from the burning bush, said "The Pharaoh's got a lesson to learn!

Well, Moses had some doubts about taking this job. He felt a little bit out of his league; leading out his people from Pharaoh's hand was quite a job indeed. "What will I say, and tell me how will they know that I'm the man that's appointed by you? A leader I'm not, but I bet for this spot, my brother Aaron will do better for you."

Back by the bush the Lord kept on; He knew He had the right man. "You need a sign, well, that's just fine. Just look what you have in your hand." All it seemed to Moses was a wooden rod until he threw it down. Imagine his surprise when a snake appeared as soon as it hit the ground.

Well, Moses started running but the Lord said, "Stop, pick the serpent up by the tail." What the Lord commanded seemed crazy to him and he protested to no avail. When he finally picked the serpent up you know what occurred: The snake became a rod in his hand. The miracle that happened gave old Moses the strength to lead his people to the Promised Land!
