Four thousand winter thought he not too long.
And all was for an apple, an apple that he took,
As clerkes finden written in their book.

Ne had the apple taken been, the apple taken been,
Ne had never our Jesus a-been heaven a King.

Blessed be the time that Savior was a-born,

Offertory

Sanctuary Choir

Offertory, by John Ness Beck

With what shall I come before the Lord,
And bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings,
Shall I come before Him with yearling calves?
Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams,
With ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I give Him my firstborn for my transgressions,
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
He has shown you, O man; what is good.
And what does the Lord require of you
But to do justice and to love kindness,
And to walk humbly with your God?
