CAMELBACK BIBLE CHURCH

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP
First Sunday of Advent
November 28, 2010

Thank you for remembering to turn your cell phone OFF during the church service.

During Advent, we celebrate the coming (Latin “adventus”) of the promised Messiah at Bethlehem. The four outer candles on the Advent Wreath represent the period of waiting during the Sundays of Advent, which themselves symbolize the four hundred years of waiting between the prophet Malachi and the birth of Christ. Each week we light one more candle. The light of the candles reminds us that Jesus is the light of the world, and that this light will overcome the darkness of the world.

Instrumental Offering
Fugue on the Magnificat,

Dr. Guy Whatley, Organist
Johann Pachelbel
(1653-1706)

Canticle of Mary, by Jeffery Ames & S. Scott Leaman

My soul doth magnify the Lord,
and my spirit doth rejoice in God my Savior.
For He that is mighty hath done great things, and holy is His name.
His mercy is upon them that fear Him, from generation to generation.

He has been mindful of the humble state of His servant.
He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts . . .
He hath brought down rulers from their thrones . . .
But hath lifted the humble.

For He that is mighty hath done great things, and holy is His name.
My soul doth magnify the Lord.

Interlude

Offertory

Let The Bright Seraphim,
by G. F. Handel

Heather & Frank Joyce,
Shara Engel, Guy Whatley

Let the bright Seraphim in burning row,
Their loud uplifted Angel-trumpets blow:
Let the Cherubic host, in tuneful choirs,
Touch their immortal harps with golden wires.

CORONATION

§ Benediction

(Read Aloud Together)

LEADER: And again, Isaiah says,
The root of Jesse will come,
even he who arises to rule the Gentiles:
in him will the Gentiles hope.

ALL: *May the God of hope fill us
with all joy and peace in believing,
so that by the power of the Holy Spirit
we may abound in hope. Amen!*

~Romans 15:12-13

Postlude

Now Thank we All Our God,

Dr. Whatley, Organist
by Albert L Travis

If you would like to meet with someone for Prayer or Counseling immediately after the service, please look for any person wearing a red Care Team name badge. They will be positioned throughout the sanctuary, and are happy to spend time with you.

Visitors, thank you for joining us today! During our Welcome, you will receive a gift bag that includes a brochure about Camelback and an Information Card. Please assist us today by completing this Information Card and placing it in the offering bag during Offertory, or bring it to the Welcome Center on the front patio immediately following the service. We are so glad you came here this morning!
