Where Shall I Run? by Kurt Kaiser

Where shall I run, Lord, when all around me
Trouble and strife seem to be ev'rywhere.
Have you not said that you would protect me,
Safe in your hand I will evermore be.

With such protection, none can alarm me,
Though the storms of life almost kill.
Ever to this shelter I will be fleeing,
No other one can provide peace for me.

Where shall I run, Lord, when I am weary,
Tired and distressed, I am left all alone.
Have you not said that you would console me,
Safe in your arms I will evermore be.

*Now may the God of all grace—

To Him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.*
