CAMELBACK BIBLE CHURCH

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

December 11, 2011

During Advent, we celebrate the coming of the Messiah.
As each week we light a candle, we anticipate this coming and are reminded that Jesus is the Light of the World.

Instrumental Offering

A Child Is Born in Bethlehem,
by Antonín Tucapsky

Leonard Valencia, Baritone Soloist

A child is born in Bethlehem, awaiteth him all Jerusalem.

Amor, quam dulcis est amor! [Love, how sweet is love!]

The Son took upon him humanity that to the Father thus draws nigh.

The angels above were singing then below were rejoicing the shepherd men.

Now let us all with the angels sing, yea, now let our hearts for gladness spring.

Our Sanctuary Choir is not with us this morning. We are joined by the Camelback Singers, our new Chamber Choir. Please remain after the service to enjoy the ministry of their 30 minute program of Christmas Carols.

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming,
from Geistliche Kirchengesäng, arr. by Doug Andres

Lo, how a rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung!
Of Jesse's lineage coming as men of old have sung.
It came, a flow'ret bright, amid the cold of winter
When half-spent was the night.

Isaiah 'twas foretold it, the rose I have in mind;
With Mary we behold it, the virgin mother kind.
To show God's love aright, she bore to men a Savior
When half-spent was the night.

If you would like to meet with someone for prayer or counseling immediately after the service, please look for any person wearing a red Care Team name badge. Several will be positioned conveniently in the back of the sanctuary and are eager to meet with you!

Visitors, thank you for joining us today! During our Welcome, you will receive a gift bag that includes a brochure about Camelback and an Information Card. Please assist us today by completing this Information Card and placing it in the offering bag during Offertory, or bring it to the Welcome Center on the front patio immediately following the service. We are so glad you came here this morning!
