Question #5: Who can save me from the penalty my sins deserve?

Grades 5-6, Year 1, Lesson 5

Isaiah

53 <sup>1</sup>Who has believed our message? To whom will the LORD reveal his saving power?<sup>2</sup>My servant grew up in the LORD's presence like a tender green shoot, sprouting from a root in dry and sterile ground. There was nothing beautiful or majestic about his appearance, nothing to attract us to him.<sup>3</sup>He was despised and rejected--a man of sorrows, acquainted with bitterest grief. We turned our backs on him and looked the other way when he went by. He was despised, and we did not care.<sup>4</sup>Yet it was our weaknesses he carried; it was our sorrows that weighed him down. And we thought his troubles were a punishment from God for his own sins!<sup>5</sup>But he was wounded and crushed for our sins. He was beaten that we might have peace. He was whipped, and we were healed!<sup>6</sup>All of us have strayed away like sheep. We have left God's paths to follow our own. Yet the LORD laid on him the guilt and sins of us all.<sup>7</sup>He was oppressed and treated harshly, yet he never said a word. He was led as a lamb to the slaughter. And as a sheep is silent before the shearers, he did not open his mouth.<sup>8</sup>From prison and trial they led him away to his death. But who among the people realized that he was dying for their sins--that he was suffering their punishment?<sup>9</sup>He had done no wrong, and he never deceived anyone. But he was buried like a criminal; he was put in a rich man's grave.<sup>10</sup>But it was the LORD's good plan to crush him and fill him with grief. Yet when his life is made an offering for sin, he will have a multitude of children, many heirs. He will enjoy a long life, and the LORD's plan will prosper in his hands.<sup>11</sup>When he sees all that is accomplished by his anguish, he will be satisfied. And because of what he has experienced, my righteous servant will make it possible for many to be counted righteous, for he will bear all their sins.<sup>12</sup>I will give him the honors of one who is mighty and great, because he exposed himself to death. He was counted among those who were sinners. He bore the sins of many and interceded for sinners.

Lord Jesus, Suffering Servant, I am saddened by what I learned today. You were made to look poorly, not because of any wrong You had done, but because of me. It was my sin that crushed you. My sin led to your being whipped, beaten, and pierced through. It was my sin that was placed upon you. God's anger came upon you, not for anything you had done, but because of what I had done. Such thoughts trouble me very much. But at the same time I am overwhelmed with your mercy. You loved me so much that you were willing to take the penalty for my sins. You were willing to take what I deserved so that I could enter into your life. Lord, thank you for such mercy. Thank you for taking my penalty and forgiving my sins. Help me from this day forward to live wholly for you. In Jesus' name, Amen.

1 Blessed is he whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered. 2 Blessed is the man whose sin the LORD does not count against him and in whose spirit is no deceit. 3 When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long. 4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was sapped as in the heat of summer. Selah 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD"— and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah
